Analysis: While this firm has a multidisciplinary offering, it is best regarded for its strength in real estate matters. Clients gave positive comments, with one praising the firm for its "deep technical skills in real estate deals." The firm is home to some recognised lawyers, including Mário Sérgio Duarte Garcia, who served as Secretary of Justice of the State of São Paulo from 1987 to 1990, and Mário de Barros Duarte Garcia, a former president of the São Paulo Lawyers Association and highly regarded real estate attorney. In addition, Marcelo Terra is considered a tour de force in the real estate field. The team keeps busy advising major clients on complex land use and occupancy regulations as well as on planning and structuring real estate transactions including residential developments, shopping centres and multi-use properties. It also handles financial work and litigation related to the real estate sector.
